Course Tutor - PROF LIAM HARRINGTON

- From novice coach to experienced coach
- The course is open to those fencers who would like to become a coach (must have a good understanding plus being of a reasonable fencing standard) plus those who have already qualified and would like to improve and move to a higher level.
- All 3 weapons can be covered.
- Course format:-
 - Learning the differences between teaching and coaching
 - The skills of constructing lessons, building lessons, breaking down the action in to its component parts & teaching on a whole-part-whole basis.
 - To help you build a routine one to one lesson and for specialist lessons.
- Time, please be there for 9 am for a prompt 9.30 am start.

There is a cafe on site for buying food and drink and of course changing rooms and showers.

Liam Harrington is a Maitre d'Armes of the British Academy of Fencing (BAF) and has Diploma coaching qualifications in Epee, Foil & Sabre.

Liam began fencing in 1990, competing successfully in all three weapons at county, regional and national level. In 2010 he achieved a bronze medal in the Master-at-Arms category at the Fencing Masters' World Championships in Flawil Switzerland.

As well as dedicating his spare time to training fencers, Liam is a regular coach educator and examiner for the British Academy of Fencing, and so plays an important part in training the next generation of Fencing Coaches. Currently Liam is part of the team of coaches at Fencers Club London
